AHS Equipment

NEW

Therastride
- Allows for body weight supported treadmill training
- Ideal for people with spinal cord impairments and people with neurological insular damage
- Located in the McKecknie Lab, 1006 Khan Annex

Contact Jake Sosnoff for availability and scheduling jsosnoff@illinois.edu

Equitest
- Testing equipment that measures:
  - Unilateral Stance
  - Limits of Stability
  - Motor Control
  - Sensory Organization
  - Adaptation
  - Rhythmic weight shift
  - Weight bearing/squat
- Ideal for testing people that are at fall risk or those with balance impairments
- Potential for using the Equitest for training purposes
- Located in 10 Freer Hall

Contact Manuel Hernandez for availability and scheduling mherand@illinois.edu

Instrumented Treadmill
- Uniquely designed treadmill for those who use mobility devices
- Can be used in conjunction with the Vicon Motion Analysis System which allows for a comprehensive method to monitor human movement
- Can be used for gait and walking
- Located in 303 Freer Hall

Contact Ian Rice for availability and scheduling ianrice@illinois.edu

Coming Soon!
Available in November 2015